Public Relations and our Rotary Club?

Most of you have spoken and all of you are interested in getting club related information. So please come and join this meeting to find out more details about the online survey results and ideas to light up our Shanghai club!

Two month ago I started my duty as Public Relations Director. The first time in 9 years of Rotary that am assigned this chair. I am not shy to say that this task is out of my comfort zone and at first I had little idea what to do with it. So instead of pushing goals I decided to take some time to listen to what all our members have to say. At the same time I have surrounded my self with a diverse team that serves as sounding board, advisors and creative brains

The Four-Way Test 四大考验

Of the things we think, say or do:

1. Is it the truth?
是真的吗? Shì Zhēn de ma?
2. Is it Fair to all Concerned?
是公平的吗? Shì Gōng Píng de ma?
3. Will it build Goodwill and better Friendships?
是善意的并促进友谊吗? Shì Shàn Yì de - Bìng Cù Jìn Yǒu Yí ma?
4. Will it be Beneficial to all Concerned?
是对大家有利吗? Shì Duì Dà Jiā Yǒu Lì ma?

We've got very interesting insights which I would like to share first hand with all of you. As our Rotary International President Gary Huang quotes: "it's better to light a candle than to curse the darkness" - embrace this opportunity to take an active role in our club and together find ways and actions that will make us proud to be RSC members!

Hope to see you all on Tuesday,

Yours, Katia Steilemann

Our last fellowship meeting saw as a highlight the VP PR of the Disney Resorts Shanghai. He elaborated on the challenges of such a mega-project as well as how to bring the different visions of the Chinese and American side together.

Overall, the meeting was presided by Frank Yi. Maryia lead all participants through the four way test and Linnet introduced visiting Rotarians and guests. Simon, assisted by Tracy, challenged all participants to donate money to our good causes.

Also important, Katia invites all Rotarians who are in Shanghai on Sept. 30th for fellowship at her home (see details on P1).

The meeting ended with a toast to and best wishes for all attendants.
